JOB DESCRIPTION

Under the direction of the Supervising Planner within the State Agriculture Development Committee (SADC), this position will support the New Jersey Farmland Preservation Program’s (FPP) Planning & GIS Unit; steward the SADC’s geospatial inventory of preserved farmland and other spatial geodatabases ensuring their integrity and compatibility with developed applications and workflows; aid in the development of custom GIS map projects and web applications for a variety of SADC initiatives; perform highly technical GIS analysis to guide prioritization of acquisitions and support stewardship of preserved farmland and agricultural development efforts; coordinate directly with partner agencies; perform other related duties as needed.

REQUIREMENTS

EDUCATION: Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Bachelor's degree in Geography, or Environmental Science including or supplemented by twelve (12) semester hour credits in computer mapping/GIS which shall have included spatial programming and digital image processing.

NOTE: A Master's degree in one of the above disciplines including or supplemented by the additional credits as shown may be substituted if the applicant holds a Bachelor's degree in another field.

FOREIGN DEGREES: Degrees and/or transcripts issued by a college or university outside of the United States must be evaluated by a reputable evaluation service at your expense. This evaluation must be included with your submission and failure to submit the required evaluation may result in an ineligibility determination.

ADVANCEMENT: Appointees who successfully complete the 12-month training period will be eligible for advancement to the title of Geographic Information Systems Specialist 3. The inability of an employee in this title to attain a level of performance warranting advancement to the title listed above shall be considered as cause for separation.

LICENSE: Appointees will be required to possess a driver’s license valid in New Jersey only if the operation of a vehicle, rather than employee mobility, is necessary to perform the essential duties of the position.

AUTHORIZATION TO WORK: Selected candidates must be authorized to work in the United States according to the Department of Homeland Security, United States Citizenship, and Immigration Services regulations.

NOTE: The State of New Jersey does not provide sponsorships for permanent residency to the United States or work visa.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Effective September 1, 2011, NJ PL 70 (NJ First Act), requires all State employees must reside in New Jersey, unless exempted under the law, or current employees who live out-of-state and do not have a break-in service of more than seven calendar days, as they are "grandfathered." New employees or current employees who were not grandfathered and who live out-of-state have one year after the date of employment to relocate their residence to New Jersey or request an exemption. Current employees who reside in NJ must retain NJ residency, unless an exemption is obtained. Employees who fail to meet the residency requirements or obtain an exemption will be removed from employment.
