

Color General George Washington (& Friend)!

Written by: Lisa A. Flick

While General Washington owned many horses in his lifetime, his two favorites during the Revolutionary War were Nelson (chestnut or reddish-brown with dark brown mane) and Blueskin (whitish-grey with dark grey mane). You can decide which one you want to show with the general!

courtesy of Laura Porter