

revised annually, using the Consumer Price Index figures then applicable and the cost for in-State tuition at Rutgers, the State University ($[12,536]12,900 for school year [2021-22] 2022-23). These revisions shall be published annually by the Department as public notices in the New Jersey Register. Additionally, the Department shall publish in the New Jersey Register, the cost of care and maintenance rates as established by the Commissioner.

(b)-(e) (No change.)

(f) The deduction for college tuition shall be the actual college tuition cost paid, but shall not exceed the maximum of the annual in-State tuition expenses for Rutgers University. The deduction shall be the net of any scholarships, awards, or grants, and shall cover tuition paid, but shall not cover such items as room, board, books, and lab fees. The maximum college tuition deduction for school year [2021-2022] 2022-2023 is $[12,536]12,900. This shall be revised annually as required at (a) above.

Managed Care Plans

Readoption: N.J.A.C. 11:24C

Authority: N.J.S.A. 17:1-8.1, 17:1-15.e, 26:2S-7.1 through 7.3, and 26:2S-10.1 through 10.3.

Authorized By: Marlene Caride, Commissioner, Department of Banking and Insurance.

Effective Date: March 14, 2023.

New Expiration Date: March 14, 2030.

Take notice that pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-5.1, the rules at N.J.A.C. 11:24C were scheduled to expire on April 15, 2023.

The rules at N.J.A.C. 11:24C govern managed care plans regulated by the Department of Banking and Insurance (Department). The rules provide a universal application and renewal form for physicians seeking to participate in a carrier’s provider network; establish standards for carriers offering managed care plans for hemophilia treatment and for all persons desiring to contract with carriers for the provision of home treatment services for bleeding episodes associated with hemophilia; require that carriers’ managed care plans provide certain benefits or services for hemophilia treatment; set forth the fines and penalties that may be imposed upon a carrier pursuant to N.J.S.A. 26:2S-16 for violations of the rules; and set forth requirements for provider networks and establish standards relating to any agreements entered into between carriers and health care providers, including provider reimbursement.

The Department has reviewed these rules and has determined that the rules continue to be necessary, reasonable, and proper for the purpose for which they were originally promulgated. Therefore, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-5.1.c(1), these rules are readopted without change and shall continue in effect for a seven-year period.
