GI Bill® Trademark Citations Acknowledgement

In accordance with the Trademark Terms of Use as outlined at www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/Trademark_Terms_of_Use.asp, education and training institutions, and other authorized third-parties, must comply with the following:

- The trademark symbol “®” should be placed at the upper right corner of the trademarked phrase, “GI Bill®,” in the most prominent place at first usage; such as the title of a brochure, form, or the very top of a Web page and the following attribution notice must be prominently visible: “GI Bill® is a registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). More information about education benefits offered by VA is available at the official U.S. government Web site at <https://www.benefits.va.gov/gibill>.”
- Use of the registered trademark symbol is not required each time the mark appears in a single document or on a Web page. However, the symbol should be prominent on all individual documents and Web pages.
- The GI Bill® trademark is not to be incorporated or included in company or product names, trademarks, logos or internet domain names.
- The term “GI Bill®” is to be used solely to promote official VA benefit programs and services and must include the proper trademark symbol.
- Use of the trademark attribution notice, indicating that the mark and all associated services belong to VA, is required and shall be taken as evidence that use of the mark is in good faith.
- No entity shall use the GI Bill® trademark in any manner that directly or indirectly implies a relationship, affiliation, or association with VA that does not exist.
- Disparagement or misrepresentations of VA services through use of the mark, or by the use of confusingly similar wording, are strictly prohibited.
