A Class B license is required when food and laundry services are provided and no other services such as personal services or financial services are provided. If you provide the services listed in a and b ONLY, then check this box.

Boarding House (Class C license required)

A Boarding House means any building with two or more units of dwelling space arranged or intended for single room occupancy exclusive of any unit occupied by owner or operator where personal or financial services are provided to the residents. If you provide any of the services listed in e and d, then you must have a Class C license.

□ Community Residence {Class D license required}

A community residence is the same as a C class Boarding House except that the owner has contracted with a state agency to provide services to their clients. An application for a class D Community Residence must be accompanied by a copy of the owner's contract with said state agency. The following are the state agencies that issue such contracts: Department of Health and Senior Services, Division of Alcoholism, Department of Human Services, Division of Mental Health and Hospitals.

- Class E License: Valid only for alcohol and drug rehabilitation facilities owned and operated by nonprofit religious organizations.
- Class F License: Valid only for Cooperative Sober Living Residences as defined within the Regulations Governing Rooming and Boarding House Standards (N.J.A.C. 5:27-1.1 et seq)

 ONLY ONE OR TWO FAMILY DWELLINGS CAN BE CONVERTED TO A CSLR

I certify the foregoing statements by me are true. I am aware that if any of the foregoing statements by me are willfully false, I am subject to a penalty of up to $5,000.
